In the mean time, you are able to see up-to-date information on our members and events on our website.

I will go ahead and arrange for a Certificate of Fellowship to be sent to you from the United States, although this may take a couple of months to reach you.

The IAML website is available at www.iaml.org and this lists up-to-date information on members and events. The members-only area (for which your username is ~~anilmalhotra~~ and your password is ~~iaml2007~~) gives you access to ~~iaml~~ publications and mailing lists and allows you to update your profile. An image of your profile page on the site is attached, you may wish to review it and change your details if required.

Let me know if anything mentioned above does not reach you by the expected date, and I will ensure that you receive it.

The President, Donald Sasser, and I very much hope that you enjoy your membership of the Academy. As you know, active participation in Academy meetings provides our fellows with an enjoyable way to develop their professional life, both in terms of their network of contacts and their legal knowledge.

Yours sincerely,

subject ILA Committee Nomination - May 2010

Dear Mr Anil Malhotra

I am pleased to inform you that at the Executive Council meeting on 8 May 2010, your nomination as Alternate to Mr Manmohan Lal Sarin on the ILA International Committee on International Family Law was approved.

It may assist you to be aware of the following points:

- Committee members are appointed on the understanding that they will participate actively in the work of the committee.
- Committee members must also ensure that their membership status in the nominating branch is maintained. Anyone not listed as a current paid up member of the nominating branch cannot continue as a member of a committee.
- Each committee's mandate will be reviewed every four years. At the same time its membership will also be reviewed and inactive members will not be re-appointed. You should also be aware of the fact that Committee chairs may also delete from the Committee's membership list any member who has not communicated with the Committee Officers during a period of two years. More information on the functioning of ILA Committees can be obtained from the ILA website (www.ila-hq.org), in particular the Guidelines for Officers of International Committees. Up to date contact details for the Committee Officers and lists of members are also available on the website
- If a committee member wishes to resign from that committee, a letter of resignation should be sent to the committee Chairman and to Headquarters.
- Committee Reports, where available, are posted as PDF files on the ILA website www.ila-hq.org under each committee (see under list of Committees in navigation on left hand side). Also available is an up to date list of current members and officers details.

I thought you might like to have the contact details for the Chairman, Rapporteurs and Members for this Committee, which I am pleased to attach. Committee officers and members are also available on the ILA website.

It would also be very helpful if you would keep this office informed of any change in your address or other contact detail. I would be grateful if you could check your own contact details in the attached contacts list and let us know as soon as possible of any amendments needed.

I hope that your membership of the Committee will be rewarding.

Yours sincerely,

Natalie Pryer ILA HQ May 2010

DO.No.1/18(10)/2016NCW (NRI)

Date: 23rd August 2016

Dear Shri Malhotra,

As you are aware that the increase in Indian Diaspora, has resulted in situations when children are alleged to be abducted by their own parents to India or to a foreign country and law enforcement agencies or even courts have limitations to address the issue.

Faced with this situation, the issue of accession to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, 1980 has been under consideration of the Government of India. The Ministry of Women and Child Development has drafted legislation "The International Child Removal and Retention Bill, 2016", in order to have an enabling legislation in India to give effect to the provisions of Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects. This draft legislation aims to facilitate prompt return of any child under 16 who has been "wrongfully removed to or retained in other state which is not his/her habitual residence." The draft law mandates setting up of a central authority, to be headed by a joint secretary level officer, where an aggrieved parent can approach for the return of a child. The authority would have the power to decide all such cases.

The National Commission for Women, which has been nominated as coordinating agency to deal with various issues arising out of NRI/Overseas marriages, is concerned about the various implications of the draft Bill. Therefore National Commission for Women is holding a Consultation to discuss the draft bill with various stakeholders on 30th August 2016 at Conference Hall No. 2, India International Centre, New Delhi at 2.30 pm. Concept Note of the Consultation is enclosed.

You are cordially invited to participate in this consultation.

The Hague Convention and Treaty on International Adoption that governs inter-country adoption processes and is now seeking to regulate disputes and processes of citizenship in case of transnational surrogacy, was discussed with reference to specific country laws. The primary focus of the debate revolved around the Indian juridical importance given to the practice of 'best interests of the child' as opposed to the Hague Convention's support for identifying citizenship of the child at the place where it is residing. This means that inter-country adoption cases for countries like India that are donor nations become potentially thorny issues, especially since a ruling (Laxmi Kant Pandey vs Union of India) supported domestic adoptions for Indian children.

The matching of international and national laws on child rights and identity giving to children clashes in cases of divorce custody disputes and transnational surrogacy, especially since there is an increasing movement of children across borders. This may include trafficking and other forms of forced movement which for many of the panelists was problematic when seen in relation to the arguments put forth in favour of the 'best interests of the child'. Supporters of the latter argument suggested the issues of acclimatization and being habituated in a particular cultural locale as reasons why the child should be retained in a particular set of relations and circumstances. Within such opposing arguments, rights of the mother and father to custody of the child were debated, as were rights of adoptive parents vis-à-vis biological parents.
